

forget about us

Clinton Kane

You came home one night
Falling up the stairs to the door
We saw it in your eyes
There's someone we've never seen before
Then you started a fight
Just to put tears in her eyes
Now it's flooding the floor

Did you
Really love us but didn't know how to?
Did you burn down a house to excuse
All the pain that you went through?
And is it better now that you're gone?

Cuz I don't know
If I should forgive
Should I just forget?
Cuz I can't seem to get what you did

I won't know
If you ever cared
Did you just forget...
Forget about us? (Oooohhhh, oooohh, oooohhhh)
Forget about us (Oooohhhh, oooohh, oooohhhh)
Forget about us

You sat in your car complaining that we weren't good enough
And we could tell by the hours you spent out, you weren't happy with us
So why ever come home just to spend all day shouting at the home
That you broke?

Did you
Really love us but didn't know how to?
Did you burn down our house to excuse
All the pain that you went through?
And is it better now that you're gone?

But I don't know if I should forgive
Should I just forget?
Cuz I can't seem to get what you did
I won't know
If you ever cared
Did you just forget...
Forget about us?
Ooooooooh
Ooooooooh
Ooooooooh
Forget about us

Ooooooooh
Ooooooooh
Ooooooooh
Forget about us
Forget about us, ooooooooh

Did you

Even love us
But couldn't show how?
When you burnt down a house
Did you lose all the pain that you went through?
And is it better now that you're gone?
