Better chew the leaf
What's wrong with y'all

What's wrong
Y'all ain't tryin' to cut, hell no

Get low, let your tail touch your elbow
Yell "no", bellow, don't slam the shell toes
Fellow fatale femme fin don't fail
So y'all best get down to business

Wajiu do y'all dance on top of the water

Why y'all sweating?
Y'all wanna bet y'all get something wetter than the wet
Better believe, y'all need to set a few
When the best of Wajinru

Swim up in the section
The complexion of the deadest blue
Let it move with the current, always dripped in something new Slip a little something in, that's the present ready to Come on with the come on, come get it
Stop acting like y'all ain't ready

Nope, nope, nope, y'all didn't
Whale-bone, tail tone, through the surf ripping
Holler if you wanna hear the colony
That's finna hear the fin up in the dimmest of the sea
And y'all should see the way
The school get drippy
Clownfish down with the drownt kids pretty
Sponge you by the time they hit the bottom of the city
On the bottom, if y'all get 'em then y'all got 'em
And the sand up in the web gets gritty
Y'all know how it goes, shine by committee
Get a nice brine one time, then split it
Back to the corner of the deep y'all residing
The next time y'all scared y'all better hide
