Get your ass down to the floor

You're so gone
Ten toes down but
Nothing to stand on
Get a handle on yourself
Hands are clammy, hands are cold
Gotta hand it to the host
The music choice is perfect
And the lights are like the last
Light you liked on the horizon
And the life you like was laughable
It's done and you're expiring

Why you say that?
Wide awake and why did they laugh?
While the way the blinds can play that
Tattoo stripes across the face that wave
How you looking at your face
When your face is on your face?
This is something you should face
You should
Fuck this song slap though
All they're faces facing wrong
Looking at there got you lost
Can't they see they seeing backwards?
Somebody turn this shit up
Everything's frozen, the world is fast
And now look at them go
All of the cataracts floating outside of your vision are inching in
What do they know?
They are just dust
They are just birds
They are just dragons
They are just nerves
Up to the end
Are they getting closer?
Are they spilling words?
Their shattered mirror picture clearer than yours?

And it feel like
Get your ass down to the floor
You'll never know, you'll never know
You ain't so special when everything glows
And it's so gone over you
It's so gone over you
You so gone
It's all gone
And it's long overdue
You got nothing to prove
You are nothing, you know
All that you have to do
Is try to get your ass down to the floor

Pick up the pieces
Pick up the cues like a human
See what you needed?

Fuck are you doing?

Riding 'round euphoria with hammers out the window
Whistle crip and crack a rainbow make it rain dance for your people
Put a pound of droh up in the pill and crush it down to powder
Let it sit under your tongue and check back in about an hour
It's that lover love and lost
It's that 'lost that lovin' feelin'
It's that base jump from the window
While you dancing on the ceiling
It's that whoop geeked up
It's that sky, it's deeper
Than that pool you swim in
You inside the speaker
It's your song
Sling that tightrope walk
The skin inside your teeth
Call that floss and bleeding diamonds
Fine if you could only reach
Ones up in the sky is smiling
They so fine and they so far
And you so small
And so you find that you've been wishing on a star
Do you feel that?

And it feel like
You ain't so special when everything glows
And it's so gone over you
It's so gone over you
You so gone
It's all gone
All that you have to do

Things you seen since last you saw yourself return a man to dust
The things you dreamed in lieu of all the hells were just imagination 'cause
You couldn't bear to see the limit of yourself for what it was
The good you wear on sleeves just isn't much
Your body is a drug you love, you crush
Make the most of magic
Map the math of it
Master mouthpiece and extract a pass from it
Plummet, plumb it, plum pit, fruit
Summit, some shit, sunk ship, loot
Loop, feedback, look, see that
Bloody sack, you used to be that
The mind is a facade
You're blinded to your god
We're god to your demise
So fine, let it be gone

Get your ass down to the floor
You ain't so special when everything glows
And it's so gone over you
It's so gone over you
You so gone
It's all gone

You got nothing to prove
All that you have to do
