Yo... Look at that ass just bouncing Oh god I need counseling Images in my head steady hounding Oh god I need counseling You don't want to bring your chicks around me Oh god I need counseling How many chicks do I got I'm still counting Shhh man I need counseling

Hey! I think I got a problem problem... And I need an open ear to try to solve 'em Having a hard time picking out my darling So until then I guess I juggle all 'em Nah I ain't gonna beg my pardon Cause I don't shop for none ya'll bitch in hardin B... Sippin on sweet as a Chardonnay I balls I don't bargain C I used to be all about the fat ass Then I find a cutie with a flat ass Good hair nice smile but a flat ass 2 outta 3 shit I couldn't let that pass Doc wat you gon' about this Cause I ain't got a clue about this I'm use to getting what, when I want where I want how I want Then them girls hollerwin "you ain't shit"

So many chicks I can pick a favorite My shrink even say me behavior's sick The hips to how shawty lick a lips Just a few thoughts that come to mind as a reminisce Temptation always be my nemesis A few sips then take it back to my premises Innocence lost once again How could you be more than friends Baby don't be mad then back that the fun that we had The love we share is so cheap like a E-class You ain't alone I too am a sleaze bag I guess I need a celebrity rehab because Ain't no real chance to love, all my wrong doings forbid me to trust Oh God forgive me for lust don't let another heart get crush
