ClockClock

See the fear that's in your eyes
I know you can't let go
See the fear you try to hide
Oh mother I gotta go

We both know, it's gonna be alright,
Even though I'm gone I'll stay by your side
Gonna think about you, every day n night
I will always be your little child
We both know, it's gonna be alright,
Even though I'm gone I'll stay by your side
Gonna think about you everyday n night

Some things gonna change, yeah 3x
Some things never change

See this world ain't big enough
To keep me away from your love
Ain't no heart that can't be touched
By the loving hands of a mother

We both know, it's gonna be alright,
Even though I'm gone I'll stay by your side
Gonna think about you, every day n night
I will always be your little child
We both know, it's gonna be alright,
Even though I'm gone I'll stay by your side
Gonna think about you everyday n night

Some things gonna change, yeah 3x
Some things never change

We both know, it's gonna be alright,
Even though I'm gone I'll stay by your side
Gonna think about you, every day n night
I will always be your little child
We both know, it's gonna be alright,
Even though I'm gone I'll stay by your side
Gonna think about you everyday n night
I will always be your little child
We both know, it's gonna be alright,
Even though I'm gone I'll stay by your side
Gonna think about you everyday n night
