

Cold Shoulder

ClockClock

You're giving me the cold
You're giving me the cold shoulder
Tell me why do you do me like that
You don't wanna talk
You just wanna stay mad

You're giving me the cold
You're giving me the cold shoulder
Tryna take your hand
But you're turning your back
You don't wanna talk
You just wanna stay mad

Why you never looking my way?
'Cause I never see you smiling
Tears dropping from your eyelids
And I don't even know why

Every day, I think it's over
It's been like this since October
All the silence is like caught you
'Cause you know I

I thought were on the same page
On the same way
Your friends ain't never like me for what they say
So when you're gonna tell me?
'Cause nothing hurts like when

You're giving me the cold
You're giving me the cold shoulder
Tell me why do you do me like that
You don't wanna talk
You just wanna stay mad

You're giving me the cold
You're giving me the cold shoulder
Tryna take your hand
But you're turning your back
You don't wanna talk
You just wanna stay mad

Gonna say I miss the old you
The one that used to let me hold you
'Cause I breed you in like O2
Bae, 'cause I know that you know
That we've been here before
But how could I forget you
When I loved you since I met you

You're giving me the cold
You're giving me the cold shoulder
Tell me why do you do me like that
You don't wanna talk
You just wanna stay mad

You're giving me the cold

You're giving me the cold shoulder
Tryna take your hand
But you're turning your back
You don't wanna talk
You just wanna stay mad

You're giving me the cold (you're giving me the cold)
You're giving me the cold shoulder (you're giving me the cold shoulder)
Tell me why do you do me like that
You don't wanna talk
You just wanna stay mad

You're giving me the cold
You're giving me the cold shoulder
Tryna take your hand
But you're turning your back
Tell me what I did
Tell me what I did that got you acting like that
