

Our love was eternal
Now I'm all alone
This is my reality
You're never coming home
The safety of your arms
A promise we'd grow old
My hearts in isolation
Thrown out in the cold

I won't cry even though I lost you
But I promised that I won't cry no more
Fly, fly, fly, fly across the ocean
Let your spirit free me like it did before

I can't find no silver lining
All I breathe is you
I see you inside my dreams
When I'm awake I'm blue
Hm-hm

Carry on without you
Pain is just too raw
Never know of losing
'Til I saw you no more
Time drifts like snowflakes frozen on the air
I search for signs
Feel your spirit everywhere

I won't cry even though I lost you
But I promised that I won't cry no more
Fly, fly, fly, fly across the ocean
Let your spirit free me like it did before

I can't find no silver lining
All I breathe is you
I see you inside my dreams
When I'm awake I'm blue

I plan my life my future
Realize I must go on
Carried by your love
I can make it on my own
At night when dreaming
Embrace my aching heart
Eyes glow like diamonds
I know we'll never part

(Fly, fly, fly)
I won't cry even
No no no oh oh no even
(Fly, fly, fly)
Across the ocean, baby
Across the ocean oh oh yeah
Let your spirit free me baby (fly, fly, fly)
Let it free me (fly, fly, fly)
Let it free
