

Memories

ClockClock

All the memories are bittersweet
But I can't help, I can't help but smile, oh no
Though I couldn't say goodbye
To the very very best days of my life

Said I never took it for granted but I did
Thought it would last forever but nothing really is now
And I hate that feeling, the feeling of regret
'Cause I know there's no way we can turn it back

All the memories are bittersweet
But I can't help, I can't help but smile, oh no
Though I couldn't say goodbye
To the very very best days of my life

You, you were enough for me
Only you, you were enough for me, babe

Said I never took it for granted but I did
Thought it would last forever but nothing really is now
And I hate that feeling, the feeling of regret
'Cause I know there's no way we can turn it back

All the memories are bittersweet
But I can't help, I can't help but smile, oh no
Though I couldn't say goodbye
To the very very best days of my life
