

Westside

ClockClock

We were two broke kids
And we didn't know it
But we made it some way, somehow

You were by my side
It was heaven, no lie
Now we're living in the here and now

We made a promise
Always be honest
Holding us down through the high and low

We were two broke kids
And we didn't know it
But we made it some way, somehow

(Hmm-mm)
At the end of the night
You can meet me on the Westside
(Hmm-mm)
We can laugh
We can cry
We can talk about the old times

(Hmm-mm)
Raise a glass, fill it up
Have a drink to the highlights
(Hmm-mm)
'Cause everything, everything
Everything's gonna be alright, whoa-oh

Everything, everything
Everything's gonna be alright, whoa-oh
'Cause everything, everything
Everything's gonna be alright

Been a long ride
Yeah, we put in some time
Ain't got a single thing to prove

Made my momma proud
Yeah, we're living so loud
And we're making all the dreams come true

We made a promise
Always be honest
Holding us down through the high and low

We were two broke kids
And we didn't know it
But we made it some way, somehow

(Hmm-mm)
At the end of the night
You can meet me on the Westside
(Hmm-mm)
We can laugh

We can cry
We can talk about the old times

(Hmm-mm)
Raise a glass, fill it up
Have a drink to the highlights
(Hmm-mm)
'Cause everything, everything
Everything's gonna be alright

Who would've thought
That one day I'd be in L.A.?
And all those Memories will never fade away

(Hmm-mm)
At the end of the night
You can meet me on the Westside
(Hmm-mm)
We can laugh
We can cry
We can talk about the old times

(Hmm-mm)
Raise a glass, fill it up
Have a drink to the highlights
(Hmm-mm)
'Cause everything, everything
Everything's gonna be alright (everything), whoa-oh

Everything, everything
Everything's gonna be alright (whoa-oh) whoa-oh
'Cause everything, everything
Everything's gonna be alright
