What Comes At The End

Cloud Cult

Will we wake up in the body of a buffalo, running through the fields with our old friends? Or will we sleep with our favorite ghosts? I'm just wondering what comes at the end. I hope I meet you again.

You'll be a hummingbird. And I'll be a bumblebee. And we will fall in love in our new skin. We will talk all night about our philosophies. As we lay wondering what comes at the end... I hope I meet you again.
