

An Older Road

Cloud Nothings

Isn't anyone worried about this problem?
How is it that time can take so long?
Nothing ever happens when you start it
You're on an older road, you're far from home

But when you feel so bad, you worry
That the pain is getting boring
And the world can only wait for you so long
Do you ever feel sorry
For the same reason you want me
To be at the end of where you have been lost?

So don't, don't, don't hide the anger
Feel it in your brain
Don't, don't, don't hide the anger
Feel it in your brain
Don't, don't, don't hide the anger
Feel it in your brain
Don't, don't, don't hide the anger
Feel it in your brain

Isn't this the error that you wanted?
Anyone can know the way you walk
Are you not the focus of your folly?
When everywhere you go, you go too long

When you feel so bad, you worry
That the pain is getting boring
And the world can only wait for you so long
Do you ever feel sorry
For the same reason you want me
To be at the end of where you have been lost?

So don't, don't, don't hide the anger
Feel it in your brain
Don't, don't, don't hide the anger
Feel it in your brain
Don't, don't, don't hide the anger
Feel it in your brain
Don't, don't, don't hide the anger
Feel it in your brain

Don't, don't, don't hide the anger
Don't, don't, don't hide the anger
Don't, don't, don't hide the anger
Don't, don't, don't hide the anger

I want to see the simple things outside of me
I want to see the simple things outside of me
I want to see the simple things outside of me
I want to see the simple things outside of me

Oh, doesn't anybody hear me?
Doesn't anybody hear me?
Doesn't anybody hear me?
Doesn't anybody hear me?
Doesn't anybody hear me?

Doesn't anybody hear me?
Doesn't anybody hear me?
Doesn't anybody hear me?
