Cloud Nothings

I'm alone
I need another voice to feel home
I take who I can get and when I'm wrong
I stay and I decide where I belong
The current in my mind repeating

Don't give him your
Don't give him your
Don't give him your life
Don't give him your
Don't give him your love
If he's not
Don't give him your
Don't give him your
Don't give him your life
Don't give him your
Don't give him your love
If he's not right
You have more time

I'm alone
I need another voice to feel home
I take who I can get and when I'm wrong
I stay and I decide where I belong
The current in my mind repeating

Don't give him your
Don't give him your
Don't give him your life
Don't give him your
Don't give him your love
If he's not
Don't give him your
Don't give him your
Don't give him your life
Don't give him your
Don't give him your love
If he's not right
You have more time
Love
Give him your love

What could be waiting here for me
What could be waiting here for me
