

For No Reason

Cloud Nothings

There's clearly something that's unseen, but we should be fine.
It's not the same as being happy, but we'll be alright.
You looked at me when we were down to have a decent day,
Just look at me and everything will be okay.

You said it never would get worse (get worse)
You said that you thought it would get well (get well)
You said it never would get worse (get worse)
You said that you thought it would get well (get well)

You were holding,
My hopes up
For no reason,
You lied too
