

Leave Him Now

Cloud Nothings

He won't deserve you but you will take him on
You might not know now how that could end all wrong
He'll leave you broken afraid of how you thought
He'll be around you when you are all he's got

You gotta leave, leave, leave
Leave him now
You gotta leave, leave, leave
Leave him now
You gotta leave, leave, leave
Leave him now
You gotta leave, leave, leave
Leave him now

End it now
Or never leave at all
You end it now
Or never be alone

He doesn't want you, he just wants to have you around
You might not see all of the ways he's keeping you down
It's not your fault if he decided how you could live
You keep on trying to move on from where you came in

You gotta leave, leave, leave
Leave him now
You gotta leave, leave, leave
Leave him now
You gotta leave, leave, leave
Leave him now
You gotta leave, leave, leave
Leave him now

End it now
Or never leave at all
You end it now
Or never be alone

You gotta go right now
Or never at all
You gotta go right now
Or never at all
You gotta go right now
Or never at all
You gotta go right now
Or never at all

You leave, leave, leave him now
You leave, leave, leave him now
You leave, leave, leave him now
You leave, leave, leave him now
End it now and feel right at home
You leave him now and feel right at home
