Cloud Nothings

You're my new enemy today
Just for existing in my space
You're never gonna be too comfortable in life
Just let me have mine and you'll get out alright

Oh, because I know what you wanna find
Know where you wanna hide
Know what you wanna find
Know where you are

And I'm not the only owner that you're looking for
I'm a stop along the road before your tiny work is done
It takes so long

This heavy policy won't end
You play with life at your expense
Don't look the other way
Are you ready to turn it in?

Oh, because I know what you wanna find
Know where you wanna hide
Know what you wanna find
Know where you are

And I'm not the only owner that you're looking for
I'm a stop along the road before your tiny work is done
It takes so long

Can we work it out? So long
Can we work it out? So long
Can we work it out?
The problem isn't me
It takes so long
Can we work it out? So long
Can we work it out? So long
Can we work it out?
The problem isn't me
It takes so long
