

He lived alone and in silence
The time went on without a sound
But locked inside he was defiant
Determined never to be found

Do you ever know who you wanna be?
What do you wanna go further for?
Who do you wanna be?
What do you wanna go further for?

He lived alone and in silence
The time went on without a sound
But locked inside he was defiant
Determined never to be found

Do you ever know who you wanna be?
What do you wanna go further for?
Who do you wanna be?
What do you wanna go further for?
Who do you wanna be?
What do you wanna go further for?
Who do you wanna be?
What do you wanna go further for?

Left me standing here and waiting for some other you
The rain is falling and I haven't got a thing to do
I guess I'll go my way and wait for you to see the truth
There isn't any other way for me to make it through

Who do I wanna be?
What do I wanna go further for?
Who do I wanna be?
What do I wanna go further for?
If only I knew
