

Silence

Cloud Nothings

If there are no new ideas
Do you have any reason to learn
Why do you keep relying
On the man who said you should burn
This is an ancient terror
And I won't you see when it's gone
Another normal day
Another dying planet we're on

With silence playing like a
Song that everyone knows
Right before the
Lie gets bigger and the
Lie moves into your home
Right before I go

Is there a time you wanna be alive in
More than your own
Is that the reason why you don't believe
What everyone knows
You got the world you've got
And you can make any heaven you want
Why do you blow out every little light
And live in the dark

With silence playing like a
Song that everyone knows
Right before the
Lie gets bigger and the
Lie moves into your home

With silence playing like a
Song that everyone knows
Right before the
Lie gets bigger and the
