

Don't Close Your Eyes

Cloudscape

Remember when you're smiling
Seems so long ago
Your world was upside down
Couldn't do nothing

You lost it all
A mental journey with no end
You need a reason to believe
'Cause truth ain't obvious

Calling out
You cry when you are all alone
Gather your senses
No need to cry no more

Dreams lies ahead of you
You will find a way back to life
Don't close your eyes

You remember when it started
It makes you wanna cry
Your love should not be defeated
It should make you strong

You need to go
To make things right and live again
There's no need to feel this pain

Calling out
You cry when you are all alone
Gather your senses
No need to cry no more

Dreams lies ahead of you
You will find a way back to life
Don't close your eyes
Rise and leave the past behind
Find your love again, let it shine
You are meant to be

Dreams lies ahead of you
You will find a way back to life
Don't close your eyes
Rise and leave the past behind
Find your love again, let it shine
You are meant to be
Dreams lies ahead of you
You will find a way back to life
Don't close your eyes
Rise and leave the past behind
Find your love again, let it shine
You are meant to be
