

Needle in the Eye

Cloudscape

The darkest moments
Felt so low and out of reach
Self claimed friends enjoyed your pain
You cannot lose it, your burning will
A needle in the eye to some
Victory will guide your way

Vengeance is yours
You will be the last one to laugh
Jealousy increasing

Never lost your desire
Fight for ambitions
Never lost your faith in what you believe in Finding your own way
Dreams that you'll follow
Jealousy doesn't bother you

Now you are standing so tall
Both your feets on the ground
You know who you can trust eternally
Whatever reason it might be
You are the brave and concious one
You are the winner in the end

Envy surrounds you
Still you're closing your eyes
Nothing will harm you

Never lost...

Live your life your way
So many dreams to follow

Never lost...
