

Without Love

Clout

When I was young, it was easy for me
Everything I wanted was free
Living seemed to be a piece of cake
Questions of reality
Never seemed related to me
Giving was much harder than to take

Then you wake up one day, your life's a mess
The joker's feeling somewhat less than a real man
Now you got to thinking that love's a lie
Your heart keeps singing, it wants to die

Without love, you can try, but you'll never fly
Without love, you can try, but you'll never fly
Without love, you can try, but you'll never fly
Without love, you can try, but you'll never fly
If you want to touch the sun, don't you know you need love?

When I was young, it was easy for me
Everything I wanted was free
Giving was much harder than to take

Then you wake up one day, your life's a mess
The joker's feeling somewhat less than a real man
Now you got to thinking that love's a lie
Your heart keeps singing, it wants to die

Without love, you can try, but you'll never fly
Without love, you can try, but you'll never fly
Without love, you can try, but you'll never fly
Without love, you can try, but you'll never fly
If you want to touch the sun, don't you know you need love?

Without love, you can try, but you'll never fly
Without love, you can try, but you'll never fly
Without love, you can try, but you'll never fly
Without love, you can try, but you'll never fly
Without love, you can try, but you'll never fly
Without love, you can try, but you'll never fly
Without love, you can try, but you'll never fly
Without love, you can try, but you'll never fly
Without love, you can try, but you'll never fly
Without love, you can try, but you'll never fly