

Astral Rider

Cloven Hoof

Take a trip out of consciousness across the great divide, Astral thought projection, suspended in time.

Flying high through cosmic oceans,
supernatural skies.
Leave the Earthbound minions,
so very far behind.

As one with the universe,
beyond pleasure and pain.
Die hard retrogression,
being reborn again.

Chorus

Nightriders on the astral planes
Nightriders on the astral planes
Nightriders on the astral planes
Nightriders on the astral planes

Frontiers of meditation, the search for inner light.
Take a look through the mind's eye,
on an endless flight.

Between the gates of forever,
void of love and hate.
Life and death have no meaning,
in animated state.

(Chorus)

A spectrum of fantastic colours,
Incandescent bright.
Vibrating on a timeless wavelength, a vision of paradise.

We're gonna take you to a place where the king of terror reigns, Carnage and mutilation degrades your burning remains.
