Spectral rider, screaming out of hell. challenging all comers, taken by his spell.

Phantom of the highway, cruise the speed of sound. Speed demon on burning wheels that never touch the ground.

Out of nowhere, in a blinding flash of light. Till another rides beside him, to vanish into night.

...Look out!

Chorus

Here comes the Death Valley Racer, The pace is taking its toll. Here comes the Death Valley racer, he's out to capture your soul. ...Carry you away.

Revved up and ready, Now the race is on. roaring to the red line, like a bullet from a gun.

Chequered flag survivor, the devil drives within. It's to the death, the price is life, pay the price to win.
