

Do What Thou Wilt

Cloven Hoof

They fear the magic but they don't understand
Good and evil is ours to command
The age of Horus dawns to meet the new god
Now walk the path that the light bearer trod

Do what thou wilt shall be the whole of the law
Do what thou wilt shall be the whole of the law
Do what thou wilt shall be the whole of the law
Do what thou wilt shall be the whole of the law

I was my guardian and will be again,
Showed me things beyond the Astral Plane
War and religion put the greed in our soul
Don't be frightened of the new final goal

Do what thou wilt shall be the whole of the law
Do what thou wilt shall be the whole of the law
Do what thou wilt shall be the whole of the law
Do what thou wilt shall be the whole of the law

Footsteps of Crowley!
Following in the footsteps... Footsteps of Crowley!
Following in the footsteps... Footsteps of Crowley!

666 is the number of the beast
And abandon all hope if you can't see
We are here to enjoy earthly pleasure
Only then can you belong to me
It's not too late now!

Do what thou wilt shall be the whole of the law
Do what thou wilt shall be the whole of the law
Do what thou wilt shall be the whole of the law
Do what thou wilt shall be the whole of the law
Go!

Footsteps of Crowley!
Following in the footsteps... Footsteps of Crowley!
Following in the footsteps... Footsteps of Crowley!

...and they are, are leading me home!
Ah, yeah!
