

Starship Sentinel

Cloven Hoof

From beyond the outermost reaches of our solar system, dwells an all powerful lifeform. For whom space and time holds no dominion.
Guardian of the galaxy... Overseer from the stars.

Long have I gazed towards your spinning sphere of sadness.
My spirit have grieved for you in anger and despair.
I can restore reason
provide a path that
all might follow.
A beacon in the darkness
to contentment fair.

[Chorus]:

I'm the starship Sentinel
last of a time forgotten race.
I've grown weary of the anguish,
adorning mans embittered face.
Let me bring enlightenment to a world that's lost its way.
Rebuild a brave tomorrow,
heed my word this day.

Your multitudes oppressed possessed by doubts and fleeting fears in adversity desperation through tormented troubled years.
now change it rearrange it.

Equality is not a dream beyond endeavour
let it be a goal that can and must be attained sensibility is the key to cure your ills forever that the unity of man can be gained.

The sands of time are running out, man must make a stand another lifeless victim.
another bloodstained hand.

You must overthrow corruption free the world that gave you birth don't seal your own destruction poor deluded children of planet Earth.
