

Hope Inside

Cloverton

Deep breath, one step at a time
Yeah, you won't fall behind that way
Hold tight to the end of the line
Yeah, it's only one night until the day

Be still, I know that your will
It is breaking tonight, you will make it tonight, somehow
Take mine, it is waiting for you
Time is waiting for you, I'll be waiting for you

There is a hope inside
That arrives and makes everything new
There is a light that shines on me
And it's shining on you
