

Everybody's Son

CLOVES

It's funny what you find
When you're not looking for it
I've known you all my life
Didn't know that I could feel this
Finding the perfect places
Only we can go
Driving in that old car
On that dirty road

You were everybody's son

You watched me lose my way
And I didn't want to hear it
Made all the big mistakes
Didn't know I was being selfish
Lying to get more time in on that dirty road
Why am I so blind
When it's you and I alone?

You were everybody's son
You were everybody's son

I didn't know before
But now I've seen it all
Give me some more
Give me some more
It took a little time
To open up my eyes
Know you were mine
Know you were always mine

It's funny what you find
When you're not looking forward
And lying to get more time in
On that dirty road
Why am I so blind
When it's you and I alone?
Blinding the perfect places
Only we can go
Driving in that old car
On that dirty road

You were everybody's son
You were everybody's son
Everybody's son
Everybody's son
