

God, I bet if there was a God, I'd be killing him
But who needs God when I have Robbie Williams?
And who needs boys with these voices in my head
That say I'm useless, I eat too much bread?

Well, I left you overnight
Left you overnight
In the cold strange air
But I'm running out of time
Running out of time
To learn how to care

But I'm so lonely and I don't have any real friends
I'm so lonely, other people are just means to an end
I'm so lonely and I'm eating in a food hall
Just watching other people and it's all my fault

One more chicken roll won't kill me
One more novel, one less party
One more birthday I should not have forgot
Oh-oh-oh, how long more till I'm a lost cause?

Well, I'm mentally unwell, mentally unwell
The excuse I've enlisted, but I honestly forgot
Honestly forgot that you even existed

I'm so lonely and I don't have any real friends
I'm so lonely, other people are just means to an end
I'm so lonely and I'm eating in a food hall
Just watching other people and it's all my fault

And I wish that I could leave my house and home
But I'll put everyone in danger, if I don't just sit here
And I'm wondering has this always been the case?
And when all this is over, should I just stay?

I'm so lonely and I don't have any real friends
I'm so lonely, other people are just means to an end
I'm so lonely and I'm eating in a food hall
Just watching other people and it's all my fault
