

Blessed

CNBLUE

I don't know why I never feel fine
I don't know why I feel so lonely
Even this is a precious time for us

I don't know why I never feel fine
I don't know why I feel so bitter
This is not what I wanted from our love

You know whenever we walk in silence
Sometimes I feel I am sad
Why? I hope can somebody tell me why

But I know when I'm here with you
Nothing else matters every time
Also, how blessed am I
'Cause I'm your lover now

But I can't understand me
Why don't I wanna keep this love?
It's enough for me, girl
Yes, I am such a fool

I don't know why I never feel fine
I don't know why I feel so lonely
Even we know there was much time for us

I don't know why I never feel fine
I don't know why I feel so bitter
This is not what I wanted from our love

You know whenever we walk in silence
Sometimes I feel I am sad
Why? I hope can somebody tell me why

But I know you mean more to me
Than anything in the world, girl
Also, how blessed am I
'Cause you are my lady

But I can't understand me
Why don't I wanna keep this love?
It's enough for me, girl
Yes, I am such a fool

But I can understand now
You are another mirror of me, girl
I see you smile at me
'Cause I'm your lover now

I know when I'm here with you
Nothing else matters every time
Also, how blessed am I
'Cause I'm your lover now

But I can't understand me
Why don't I wanna keep this love?
It's enough for me, girl

Yes, I am such a fool

I don't know why I never feel fine
I don't know why I feel so lonely
Even this is a precious time for us
