

Crying Out

CNBLUE

Still, I wake up alone
Sunshine in my eyes
Coffee keeps me warm
Look at me in the mirror
As the tears roll down
Laughing at myself

Just an empty heart
What else is in the life?
What's gone wrong?
I am not sure in my life

Crying out in my life
Crying out like crazy
I don't know what I can see more, nobody knows
Crying out in my life
Crying out like crazy
I don't know what I can see more, nobody knows

Still, I stand here alone
Always in the dark
Calm all around me
Nobody beside me
Like a blast of wind
All are passing by me

Just an empty heart
It makes me lose my mind
What's gone wrong?
I am not sure in my life

Crying out in my life
Crying out like crazy
I don't know what I can see more, nobody knows
Crying out in my life
Crying out like crazy
I don't know what I can see more, nobody knows

All I know, that is life
All I know, that is life
All I know, that is life
All I know, that is life
All I know, that is life
All I know, that is life
All I know, that is life
All I know, that is life

Still, I sleep here alone
It's same as always
Another day done

Crying out in my life
Crying out like crazy
I don't know what I can see more, nobody knows
Crying out in my life (Out in my life)
Crying out like crazy (Out like crazy)
I don't know what I can see more, nobody knows

It'll only break my heart
