

Don't Care

CNBLUE

If I were you, I'd get ready for a chance
If I were you, I'd hear what everyone says
Such a beautiful flower, beautiful sky, many beautiful things
But that is not your case, you don't know the beauty of life

If I were you, I'd not have vain hope
If I were you, I'd not be hard on everything
Such a beautiful blossom, beautiful tree, many beautiful things
But that is not your case, you don't know the beauty of life

I don't care, I have my friends to wait for me
I don't care, I have my fans to support me
I'm gonna be okay, gonna be okay
I don't care, I believe in my everything

If I were you, I'd look in the mirror (Look in the mirror)
If I were you, I would be cautious and calm
Such a beautiful blossom, beautiful tree, many beautiful things
But that is not your case, you don't know the beauty of life

I don't care, I have my friends to wait for me
I don't care, I have my fans to support me
I'm gonna be okay, gonna be okay
I don't care, I believe in my everything

Thank you, friends, I'm not alone, be with me, guys
Thank you, fans, you're not alone, I'll be with you
I'm gonna be okay, gonna be okay
I don't care, I believe in my everything
I don't care, I have my friends to wait for me
I don't care, I have my fans to support me
I'm gonna be okay, gonna be okay
I don't care, I believe in my everything
