

Irony

CNBLUE

Even though I saw you
From behind before
I was not so bad
But I can't feel happy any more
Tonight
Even though I see you
In front of me now
I don't wanna stay
'Cause I can't feel
Your warmth any more
Do you know

Everything's ironic hold me
I wanna feel your truth every time
Irony hold me
All I want is to hold you every day
My love's black
Don't just leave me alone
Don't leave
My love don't let me leave

Our love will become grey
Before we know it
I do feel strange
It will not light our love any more
Do you know

Little too ironic don't you
How can I want your love anymore
Irony hold me
All I want is to love you every day
My love hear me
Don't just leave me alone
Don't leave
My love don't let me leave

Everything's ironic hold me
I wanna feel your truth every time
Irony hold me
All I want is to hold you every day
My love's black
Don't just leave me alone
Don't leave
My love don't let me leave

Little too ironic don't you
How can I want your love anymore
Irony hold me
All I want is to love you every day
My love hear me
Don't just leave me alone
Don't leave
My love don't let me leave
