

Monday

CNBLUE

Monday morning, the clock strikes 6AM
I can't bear the sound of the alarm, I feel so bad
Monday morning, the clock strikes 8AM
I wanna skip my work, I don't like my same old story

I just wanna walk up a charming city where I belong
I hope everyday is like a holiday

I wanna make a time machine
So I can go anywhere I wanna go
I'll never be lazy
I wanna make a time machine
And I can do anything I wanna do
I'll never be lazy all the time

Stu-tu-tu, yeah-yeah
Stu-ru-du-ru, doop-doop-du
Sta-ri-du-ri, doop-doop-do

Sunday night, the clock strikes 8PM
Time flies so fast, I don't wanna sleep tonight

I just wanna walk up a charming city where I belong
I hope everyday is like a holiday

I wanna make a time machine
So I can go anywhere I wanna go
I'll never be lazy
I wanna make a time machine
And I can do anything I wanna do
I'll never be lazy all the time

Monday night, the clock strikes 6PM
I will take a bus with my MP3 player
Monday night, the clock strikes 10PM
Time flies so fast, I will go to sleep, bye-bye

I wanna make a time machine
So I can go anywhere I wanna go
I'll never be lazy
I wanna make a time machine
And I can do anything I wanna do
I'll never be lazy all the time
