Hoo hoowoohoo hoowoohoo...

I remember the day I saw you
When I didn't even know your name
Your mysterious smile is still so clear
Making my heart race

You came into me like the scent of flowers spreading
With the wind, fall in love

My heart pounds on this sleepless night
A night where I draw you out, endless night
All night, I'll let you hear
I'll tell you about sweet my love
Hoo hoowoohoo hoowoohoo...

The starlight flows through your child-like eyes
Look at my eyes
Always at the same spot, always at the same place
Always in my heart

You came into me like the scent of flowers spreading
With the wind, fall in love

My heart pounds on this sleepless night
A night where I draw you out, endless night
All night, I'll let you hear
I'll tell you about sweet my love
Hoo hoowoohoo hoowoohoo...

Always at the same spot, always at the same place
Always in my heart

I toss and turn on this sleepless night
An anxious night, endless night
All night, I want to be with you
My heart heads toward you, sweet my love
Hoo hoowoohoo hoowoohoo...
