Sometimes, I wanna go back
To the times I forgot about
When I was young
The times that wrapped around me
Reminiscence

Reminiscence

Time alone keeps increasing
I get lonely several times a day
Why has my life gotten so cold?

When I was young, when I looked at the sky
I wanted to walk on the clouds
Now when I see the sky
I only sigh, oh no

Sometimes, I wanna go back
To the times I forgot about
When I was young
The times that wrapped around me
Reminiscence

At some point
Warmth left me
When I was young
I should catch all the things I lost

When I was young, I wanted to be an adult
Now I long for those times
Why has my life gotten so cold?

When I was young, when I looked at the sky
I wanted to walk on the clouds
Now when I see the sky
I only sigh, oh no

Sometimes, I wanna go back
To the times I forgot about
When I was young
The times that wrapped around me
Reminiscence

I wanna go back
To the times I forgot about
When I was young
The times that wrapped around me
Reminiscence

What I lost
Reminiscence
What I lost

Sometimes, I wanna go back
To the times I forgot about
When I was young
