CNBLUE

I know I've fallen in love when you're coming down to my eyes
Wanna make you, wanna feel the beauty as you are
Girl, I wanna tell you some I'm not a man who say in lie
Wanna love you I wanna hold you can you be the part of my life

You can have it your way girl if you mind
I don't wanna bend you girl, all the life all the life

I'll feel your love forever I wanna know your feeling
This feeling is so true, girl I'll need your love forever
I can feel your heart So please breathe with me forever

If you wanna one time
I gotta give you more than whevenever wanna some thing
