

Unspoiled

Coal Chamber

Always cold inside this glass trust it's hard, I know this trust will never last it's never been much of my concern I've grown in size again, still fine?

Sleep it all away, just another day always me in the corner this way it's never been much of your concern you've grown inside again, still fine?

Do I look fine to you?
do I seem alright to you?
do I look fine?
do I seem alright - to you?

Stay - unspoiled

So spoiled you leave cleaner by day exposed and lonely forever on display it's never been much of our concern we fell apart again, kill time
