Where Have you been? I've been here. Waiting anticipating, coping with tears. Where have you been? You've been untrue, I've seen it before and I see it again. Its quite clear now Your phone rang all night. I wanited here. Waiting anticipating, coping with fear. Where have you been? You've been untrue. I've seen it before and I see it again You can't stop me you know who I am. This justifies now just what I am. You crucify me won't lay by my side. And now you'll need me until I die. Guess what I'm dead You've been untrue. I've seen it before and I see it again You can't stop me you know who I am. This justifies now just what I am. You crucify me won't lay by my side. And now you'll need me until I die. Guess what I'm dead
