

Cute

Coast Modern

Know that shit just happened
But by her reaction, you would think I been the man
You make it look easy
Even though it's cliché, I saw you on your Instagram

And I think you're cute
I think you're cute
Oh, yes I do
I think you're cute
I think you're cute
I think you're cute
Oh, yes I do
I think you're cute

Baby, we could go out to the movies
I know there's something you wanna see
One thing 'bout me, I am a foodie
So you know I take you for a bite to eat

'Cause I think you're cute
I think you're cute
Oh, yes I do
I think you're cute
I think you're cute

Girl, we need to go out on a date
We could really do a little something
If it's cool, I'll pick you up at eight
We could really do a little something
We could really do a little something, little baby
Looking at this pretty face drives me crazy

'Cause I think you're cute
I think you're cute
Oh, yes I do
I think you're cute
I think you're cute
I think you're cute
Oh, yes I do
I think you're cute

I just had to park my car
'Cause I was finna crash my wheel
Scrollin' through my feed
I see you had just post a pic
I choose you like a Pokemon
I choose you, you selection one
I got money, you got money
So let's go have fun with it
Win I buy you a new purse
It's 'cause you buy my kicks
I move fast like a brand new car
I move fast like a shooting star
If I say we married
Then goddamn, we gettin' married
If you need it and I got it
You can have it, bitch, I'm sharin'

If you cryin', I'ma ask you why
Bitch, I'm carin'
If you need me to look out for you
I'm posted and I'm starin'
Doubt you'll never have another boyfriend
I get jealous
Yeah, I'm almost out of love
And I get crazy
I choose you, now you have it to deal
You're so cute 'cause you make me chill

I said I think you're cute
I think you're cute
Oh, yes I do
I think you're cute
I think you're cute

Girl, we need to go out on a date
