

Tiny Umbrella

Coast Modern

I feel I'm going insane
Spent another day thinking of you
(Oh, you)
You keep ignoring my calls
That doesn't help at all
Can I get through
(Oh, through)

So I'ma mix a little bit of this
With a little bit of that
If I'm holding on too tightly
I might never come back

I'ma take my time
And I'ma smell the flowers
I'm higher than a tower
Got my tiny umbrella
I'ma take my time
Sipping on a sour
And baby when the sky's coming down
I'll be the clown with the tiny umbrella

I sent another bouquet
Drowned in Tanqueray
What did I do
(I do)
I know it's not your fault
But it's never not something with you
(With you)

So I'ma mix a little bit of this
With a little bit of that
If I'm holding on too tightly
I might never come back

I'ma take my time
And I'ma smell the flowers
I'm higher than a tower
Got my tiny umbrella
I'ma take my time
Sipping on a sour
And baby when the sky's coming down
I'll be the clown with the tiny umbrella

I don't need you anymore
Now that I'm on my way
I'm going back to my roots
Posted up to get toasted
Blow it up and get roasted
I'm losing it and I love it

"Hey, dude, you wanna do a shot?"
"No, I don't do shots. I'm a cocktail gentleman"
"Cocktail man eh?"
"Yeah, I like to take my time"

I'ma take my time

And I'ma smell the flowers
I'm higher than a tower
Got my tiny umbrella
I'ma take my time
Sipping on a sour
And baby when the sky's coming down
I'll be the clown with the tiny umbrella
