

Desperate Man

Cobi

Don't have to search to find
Some kind of misery
Those who fell behind
Yeah, we go to extremes
I've got nowhere to hide
You can do your worst to me
Looked the devil in the eyes
It ain't nothing I haven't seen

I am just a desperate man
With my back against the wall
I've done everything I can
No I'm not proud of it all
I thought I saw the signs
Tell me where did I go wrong
Staring back at the world
Maybe this is right where I belong

Oh I've been on some highs
So I know when I'm in deep
I've had to get wise
In ways I wish I didn't need
Said I'm guilty of my crimes
Born out of necessity
You haven't grown a spine
If you don't know what I mean

I am just a desperate man
With my back against the wall
I've done everything I can
No I'm not proud of it all
I thought I saw the signs
Tell me where did I go wrong
Staring back at the world
Maybe this is right where I belong

That's what I said
Maybe this is right where I belong
Maybe this is right where I belong
