

Fools Gold

Cobi

I could never trust a soul
To be more than just a human
I was born to be alone
That's how I'm gonna go anyway
Been betrayed by love
Ever since I was a little child
Fragile heart turned to stone
Just another tragic love song

I think you're out to get me
I know love always fall apart
Don't you dare try to fool me
I know you can't repair my broken heart

Yeah I know you'll runaway
If I get too close to you
Just another walk of shame
And added weight to my baggage
You say your love is paid in full
But it was only fools gold
And I am just another fool
To a merchant of pain on the road

I think you're out to get me
I know love always fall apart
Don't you dare try to fool me
I know you can't repair my broken heart

You're love is an illusion
You're love is an illusion

I think you're out to get me
I know love always fall apart
Don't you dare try to confuse me
I know you won't repair my broken heart
