

Rising Phoenix

Cobi

I've been hungry for this
The lions awakened inside me
I've been opened up, opened up
It comes and it goes like a burst of light
How did you wanna say goodbye?
How did you wanna say goodbye? No
Cause we're never in control
Yeah we could lose it all anytime
So I'm gonna live like I'm born to die

Rising phoenix set me free
I will set the sky a fiery blaze
Thunder, lightning and rain
You shook the earth beneath my feet
No matter how many times my heart will break
I will rise up again my love's not fading away

A reckless love
She was a master of desire
Her heart was full of pain
Sparks flew everywhere
I've never been so burned by the fire
When we were making love
She would pull me close and she'd tell me
And she'd tell me, and she'd tell me, and she'd tell me
She said, I believe in you
I believe in you
Do you believe in me?

Rising phoenix set me free
I will set the sky a fiery blaze
Thunder lightning and rain
You shook the earth beneath my feet
No matter how many times my heart will break
I will rise up again my love's not fading away

Love's not fading away
Love's not fading away

You're in my heart, you're in my head
I'll carry on until I'm dead
When we embraced it was ecstasy
Now our love fades to memories
You're in my heart, you're in my head
You lit the spark, a fiery death
We disappear, we disappear
We disappear

Rising phoenix set me free
I will set the sky a fiery blaze
Thunder lightning and rain
You shook the earth beneath my feet
No matter how many times my heart will break
I will rise up again my love's not fading away
