

The Frame

Cobi

Is there no way?
To take away these blues?
Maybe I should try
To medicate
What am I to lose?

I opened up my chest took my heart
And went and gave it to you
I guessed I should've known that's when you'd leave
Cause it's a well worn groove
But don't leave tonight

Show me
You know how to love me right
Get to know me
Oh honey, for the very last time
I know it won't last forever
I surrender
I know it's now or never
Cause baby you were never the type
Like an autumn rain
It was cold and gray
When you stepped out of the frame
Of my life

Another day
Walking in the same old shoes
And then you came
In every way
You made it new

The thought of loving someone else
Oh honey, just won't do
I guess I should've known that you would leave
Cause that's a well worn groove
But don't leave tonight

Show me
You know how to love me right
Get to know me
Oh honey, for the very last time
I know it won't last forever
I surrender
I know it's now or never
Cause baby you were never the type
Like an autumn rain
It was cold and gray
When you stepped out of the frame
Of my life
