

BAD POSITION

COBRAH

Ride out till the morning
I've stayed in bed too late
All this pressure forming
You've filled me up with pure hate
I'm made of solid hard steel
I've bent and begged for my dreams
Now you've sucked the life out of me
And lost what makes us so real

You want me on your side
I can't be on both ends
I just want you to be mine
Cut wide open
But I have to survive
Go with the motion
Come join me on my ride
Want your devotion

I'm in a bad position
I've made some bad decisions
I need a bad salvation
This is bad temptation

You've set my life on fire
And cooled it with your ease
Wish I could flee desire
But I'd never let me leave
Now black and white is too gray
I'm stuck in endless threeways
Life in game, pony play
I just want to feel it's okay

You want me on your side
I can't be on both ends
I just want you to be mine
Cut wide open
But I have to survive
Go with the motion
Come join me on my ride
Want your devotion

I'm in a bad position
I've made some bad decisions
I need a bad salvation
This is bad temptation

You want me on your side

I want it so superficial
But I need it, and I need you with it
I want it so superficial
But I need it, and I need you with it
I want it so superficial
But I need it, and I need you with it
I want it so superficial
But I need it, and I need you with it
