

Love Is a Fight

Cochren & Co.

Love ain't easy
I guess it wasn't supposed to be
But through the hard times and the sunshine
It's always been you and me

We feel the temptation
To let indifference take hold
It's a long night but I promise
I won't let the fire go cold

Oh, love is a fight
It's a battle for each other
Oh, love is a fight
It doesn't stay without a struggle

I ain't giving up, I ain't giving in
Baby, I'm ready for war
Oh, love is a fight
But it's something worth—
Something worth fighting for

I know we're gonna make it
'Cause we've got what it takes
Yeah, the wind blows against the front door
But the lock won't break

Oh God as my witness
You're never gonna be alone
I'll take all hell and the devil himself
To keep you in my arms

Oh, love is a fight
It's a battle for each other
Oh, love is a fight
It doesn't stay without a struggle

I ain't giving up, I ain't giving in
Baby, I'm ready for war
Oh, love is a fight
But it's something worth—
Something worth fighting for

Oh, love is a fight
It doesn't stay without a struggle
Oh, love is a fight
Gotta hold on, gotta hold on

Oh, love is a fight
It's a battle for each other
Oh, love is a fight
It doesn't stay without a struggle

I ain't giving up, I ain't giving in
Baby, I'm ready for war
Oh, love is a fight
But it's something worth—

(Oh, love is a fight)
