

After all's said and done

Cock Robin

How do I feel after all's said and done
Try and I try but the tears will not come
What do I do to keep love on the run
And why can't I march
To the beat of your drum

Maybe I'm lost
Maybe I've learned
Once shy twice burned
So I keep my head up, up in the clouds
Where only a child can find me now

How can I be
Neither shocked nor stunned
I try not to ask too much of someone

Maybe I'm lost, maybe I've learned
Once shy twice burned
So I keep my head up, up in the clouds
Where only a child can find me now

How do I feel after all's said and done
Try and I try but the tears will not come

Maybe I'm lost, maybe I've learned
Once shy twice burned
So I keep my head up, up in the clouds
Where only a child can find me now

How do I feel after all's said and done
Try and I try but the tears will not come

How do I feel
How do I feel
