

A few regrets not much to ...
Next time around have more fun
So just to feel alone to live
Live it to the world who once

Think that I could fall in love again
Make a future plan all my years
Life on the beach, cover the sand
Whispering ... that no one hears
I wanna be there, never grow up
Never to leave there, wouldn't that be wonderful?
Wouldn't that be great? Wouldn't that be wonderful? Wonderful

But I last ... hand
Conquest .. children too
Still ... to make you cry
Doesn't love ...
I wanna scream it, look what I found,
Can you believe it?

Wouldn't that be wonderful? Wouldn't that be grand?
