

Suicide Girls

Cock Sparrer

Four in the morning, out all night,
going where she can't tell.
But she knows it'll be alright,
she's with the suicide Girls.

Strutting down the street, with an attitude
like she own's the world.
Don't even think she'd look at you,
she's with the Suicide Girls.

ref:
And when they're all together
you'd better watch out,
nobody's gonna mess with them,
'till the last one passes out.
Ordering the drinks and talking loud,
with a laugh like a scream from hell.
She's never gonna be one of the crowd,
she's with the Suicide Girls.

For a lifetime or single night,
your might get into her world.
That'll be strictly by invite,
she's with the Suicide Girls.

Just don't try to take her away,
you'll be dead before you fell.
Get in the back seat, know your place,
she's with the Suicide Girls.

ref:
And when they're all together
you'd better watch out...

All for one and one for all, we're with the Suicide Girls.
All for one and one for all, we're with the Suicide Girls.
All for one and one for all, we're with the Suicide Girls.
All for one and one for all, we're with the Suicide Girls.
All for one and one for all, we're with the Suicide Girls.
All for one and one for all, we're with the Suicide Girls.
