

By Myself

Coco Jones

Good-good-good-good
Good-good-good-good
Good-good-good-good

Is it me? Or am I always stuck in the between?
Being logical and then naive?
Is it me? Is it me? (Is it me? Only me?)
Yeah, I heard that the end always comes in due time
In our story, there's only two sides
It's either we or me

Maybe I realized you might be gone someday
So why not act like you're gone, just in case?

Baby, 'cause me, I wanna learn to be comfortable by myself
When it's just me, I wanna learn to be comfortable by myself
Gotta feel real good, good, good by myself
Wanna feel real good, good, good with no one else
If it's just me, I wanna learn to be comfortable by myself

All alone in my room and I think about is you
I thought you would answer, so co-dependent
On my own, need to know I can be without you
And I thought you was all mine
But that was in my mind

Then I realized you might be gone someday
So why not act like you're gone, just in case?

Baby, 'cause me, I wanna learn to be comfortable by myself
When it's just me, I wanna learn to be comfortable by myself
Gotta feel real good, good, good by myself
Wanna feel real good, good, good with no one else
If it's just me, I wanna learn to be comfortable by myself

Gotta feel real good, good, good by myself
Wanna feel real good, good, good with no one else
Gotta feel real good, good, good by myself
Wanna feel real good, good, good with no one else
Gotta feel real good, good, good by myself
Wanna feel real good, good, good with no one else
Gotta feel real good, good, good by myself
