

Call On Christmas

Coco Jones

Woke up with the same anxiety
Of all my nephews and my niece
When I open up my eyes, what will see?
I'm looking for one thing, thing, thing
Your number on my phone
Make it ring, ring, ring

We broke up in December
Maybe we made a mistake
This holiday used to be our thing
I know that you remember
So if you do regret it
This is the perfect chance
To get back right with me

Why don't you call on Christmas?
Say you miss us?
Are we both alone?
Why don't you call on Christmas?
Say you miss us?
Only thing I want

Watching them snowflakes fall and
Waiting on you to call and
Watching them snowflakes fall and
Waiting on you to—
Why don't you call on Christmas?
Say you miss us?
Did you find someone new, new?

Everybody is around me, so I gotta put on
Not tryna how my aunty say I need to move on It's really only me and Santa that knows what I want
He better keep that on the low though 'cause I said I was done

We broke up in December
Maybe we made a mistake
This holiday used to be our thing
I know that you remember
So if you do regret it
This is the perfect chance
To get back right with me

Why don't you call on Christmas?
Say you miss us?
Are we both alone?
Why don't you call on Christmas?
Say you miss us?
Only thing I want

Watching them snowflakes fall and
Waiting on you to call and
Watching them snowflakes fall and
Waiting on you to—
Why don't you call on Christmas?
Say you miss us?
Did you find someone new, new?

Watching them snowflakes fall and
Waiting on you to call and
Watching them snowflakes fall and
Waiting on you to-
Watching them snowflakes fall and
Waiting on you to call and
Watching them snowflakes fall and
Waiting on you to-